

They're Here—Those New
CHALMERS

IT'S the very car that delighted New York Automobile Show crowds—with a higher radiator and lower body lines.

The windshield is low and the top is low, and you sit snugly in those tilted seat cushions with a comfort difficult to express.

Like the proportions of a fine room the lines of this new Chalmers have a certain evenness, certain engaging dimensions and proper ratios that alone tempt you to reach for your check book.

But only in the body and bonnet and such things is this a new Chalmers. The chassis is unchanged—well nigh faultless.

Hot Spot and Ram's-horn continue to supply the remedy for the prevailing inferior gasoline of the day.

This is one car in which you have most anything you could wish for—rare ability and richness of line and detail.

The first of these new Chalmers are here; see them without delay.

Obviously, the demand outranks the supply.

MANY STATES OPPOSE

RHODE ISLAND SUIT

Washington, March 1.—Twenty-one states joined with the federal government today in asking the supreme court to dismiss the original suit brought by Rhode Island to test the validity of the prohibition amendment to the constitution.

Subscribing to a brief, which was filed by Charles E. Hughes with the court's permission, and which asked dismissal of the Rhode Island case on the grounds that no justifiable questions were involved, were the states of Delaware, North Carolina, Kentucky, Louisiana, Indiana, Alabama, Maine, Arkansas, Michigan, Florida, Oregon, Kansas, West Virginia, Nevada, Nebraska, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Utah and Arizona.

Dismissal of the suit which the government has moved, was opposed in another brief, presented by Attorney General Herbert A. Rice of Rhode Island, who asserted that the government's view that the amendment is "unassailable" could "only lead to anarchy and oppression."

Another development today in the proceedings was indefinite postponement, by permission of the court, of arguments, which were to have been heard next Monday, in order to permit appeals from Kentucky and Massachusetts, involving the amendments validity, to be heard at the same time. Assistant Attorney Filer-sonson, indicated tonight that the arguments might be heard March 15.

In asking permission to file the brief, Mr. Hughes told the court that officials of 19 of the 21 states had communicated with him directly relative to opposing Rhode Island's suit, while the governors of the other two, Nevada and Kansas, had given him authority to include them.

"The state of Rhode Island," Mr. Hughes said in his brief, "does not bring its bill of complaint to enforce and property right or any interest of the state which can be regarded as the proper subject of judicial consideration."

"If this court may consider the question whether an amendment not expressly prohibited by the constitution itself can validly be adopted it is submitted that there is nothing in the nature of the 18th (prohibition) amendment which exposes it to the charge of invalidity.

"The truth is," the brief concluded, "that there is nothing left but a question of political policy with which this court has no concern."

LEGION WILL PUSH PLAN

Washington, March 1.—The campaign of the American Legion for adoption of a national universal military training policy will not be halted because House leaders have decided to sidetrack the issue in considering the pending army reorganization bill.

Thomas W. Miller, of Wilmington Del., announced today, speaking for the legion's special military committee, of which he is chairman. Efforts to secure adoption of such a policy at this session of Congress will be continued.

WISE STUPH.

Nothing doing is the result of doing nothing.

Every black sheep was somebody's pet lamb once.

It's better to take things as they come than to miss them as they go.

A man may not be as bad as he is painted, but he looks bad painted that way.

Many a man has thrown a rock that he would like to have back in his hands.

What is a man worth? What he does when he's alive plus what he leaves when he dies.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.
